DR200SE FARM

A firm favourite on New Zealand farms

Boasting a strong off-road heritage, the DR200SE is a well-known farm bike, which was developed and tested here in New Zealand to meet our demanding conditions.

An all-purpose utility motorcycle, the DR200SE is built tough with many special features that make it ideal for the rigorous conditions of modern day farming, including a powerful headlight, clutch and brake lever protectors, extended guards, dual side stands and big carry racks. It's toughness and penchant for good old-fashioned hard work has made it a firm favourite on New Zealand farms.
